

WORKSHEET 1: Choices

Think about the choices that we make every day as road users and the impact that they have on our safety.

List as many of these choices, good and bad, as you can. Write the choices that drivers make on the left and that passengers make on the right.

DRIVERS

PASSENGERS

DRIVERS

PASSENGERS

WORKSHEET 2: Responsibility on the Road

In groups or with a partner discuss the ways that different types of road users can behave responsibly or irresponsibly, on the roads. Write examples of each in the boxes below.

	RESPONSIBLE BEHAVIOUR ON THE ROAD	IRRESPONSIBLE BEHAVIOUR ON THE ROAD
DRIVER
PASSENGER
PEDESTRIAN
CYCLIST
OTHER

WORKSHEET 3: Life after Injuries

The surgeon talks about a number of injuries that are a common result of serious collisions. Think about how those injuries would affect your life after the collision. List some examples in the spaces below:

LIFE AFTER SERIOUS INJURIES

LOSS OF LIMBS

--

BRAIN DAMAGE

--

BROKEN BONES

--

DAMAGE TO INTERNAL ORGANS

--

PARALYSIS

--

EXTERNAL INJURIES
SUCH AS SCARRING

--

WORKSHEET 4: Working Through Death

From the minute that Jayne Parkes knocks on a door, and breaks the news to a family that a loved one has died in a road traffic collision, she is with the family through anything related to the crash.

What sort of things do you think that Jayne has to do?

WORKSHEET 5: The Mortuary

What can you remember about the Mortuary? How did it look? What was in it? Think about the things you saw, and the things that the officer said. What would the atmosphere be like?

THINGS THAT I SAW

THINGS THAT THE OFFICER SAID

--	--

THE ATMOSPHERE

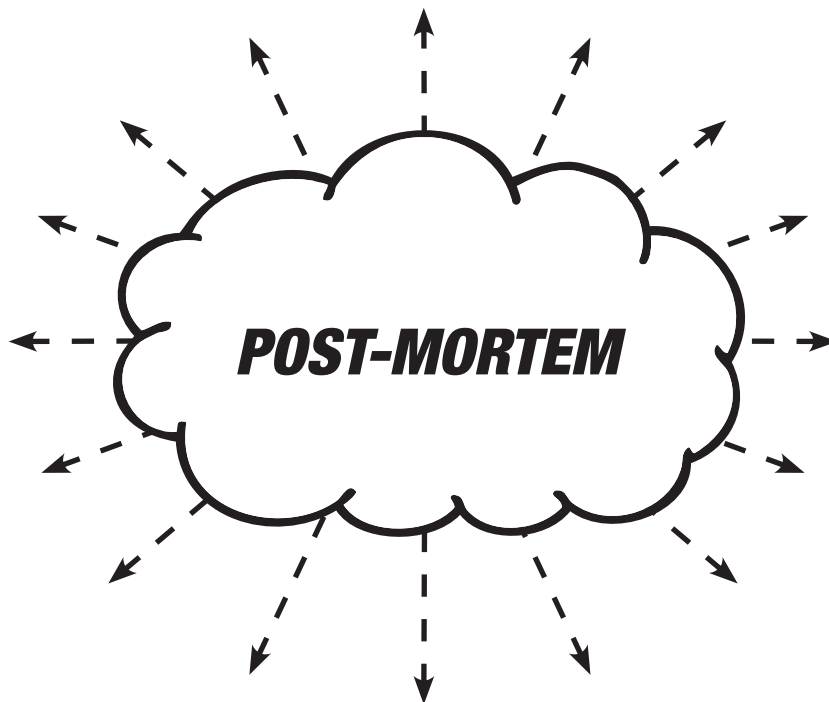

--

WORKSHEET 6: Post-mortem

Think about the Post-mortem Room. What things stood out about it? Think about the things you saw, the sounds you heard and what the pathologist said.

What I saw

What I heard

What the pathologist said

WORKSHEET 7: The Instruments

Below are images of the different instruments used during a post-mortem. Can you remember what they are used for? What do they make you think about and how do they make you feel?

RIB SHEARERS

PM40 (STANDARD KNIFE)

T-PIECE

OSCILLATING SAW

WHAT IT IS USED FOR

WHAT I THINK ABOUT/HOW I FEEL
